

WILL YOUR BOOK BE BANNED NEXT?

Education is under attack on multiple fronts, including legislative gag orders, book bans, and hostile school board takeovers. The targets range from critical race theory and LGBTQ+ issues to DEI programs and accreditation. Right-wing politicians and foundations, churches and grassroots organizations are trying to dictate what can be taught and who can teach in K-12 schools and public universities and colleges.

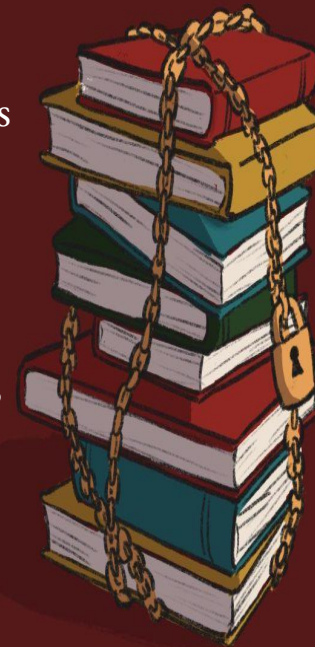

This latest phase of the culture war on education threatens the professional autonomy, academic freedom, and expertise of all educators.
